

World Hope International (Australia) is seeking our next CEO

Who we are:

At World Hope International (Australia) we seek to provide those in need with opportunity, dignity, and hope so they can possess the tools for change in themselves, their family, and their community. We address global health, invest in clean water and energy, protect the most vulnerable and work alongside communities to launch social ventures and build sustainable solutions to poverty.

As a team we are passionate about international ministry and protecting and empowering the disadvantaged and most vulnerable. Does this sound like you?

About the Role

For the past 20 years, our current CEO has faithfully served World Hope International (Australia) but has recently made the decision to step away from the role at the end of her term.

As a result, we are now searching for our next CEO.

The role of CEO reports to the World Hope International (Australia) Board and is responsible for managing all aspects of the organisation to deliver the organisation's strategic objectives. It is a key leadership role and critically important in implementing the vision and mission of World Hope International (Australia).

About the Person

The successful candidate will be a faithful and committed follower of Christ. They will be passionate and dedicated to mobilising Australians to help support and empower the most vulnerable people around the world. Besides being competent in managing a nationwide, not-for-profit, charitable, Christian organisation, the next CEO will align with our values, have credibility in cross-cultural ministry, and be a strong leader.

Working with vulnerable and exploited communities to alleviate poverty, suffering and injustice.
